

Essential Ingredients of an Effective Muslim Counselor

By
Dr. Mohammed Sadiq

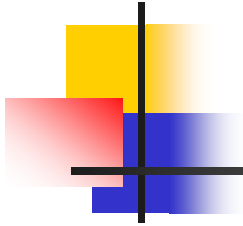

© Dr. Mohammed Sadiq

- What does it take to become an effective counselor?
- And then, what does it take to become an effective Muslim counselor?
- Are there any differences in counseling Muslim and non-Muslim clients?
- Can effective Muslim counselors be trained through the modernized western counseling programs?
- What additional training is required for a Muslim Counselor?

-
- These are some of the questions that we would attempt to answer in this workshop.
 - This workshop is intended for Muslim counseling professionals and para-professionals.
 - The participants would have an opportunity to share their learning and work experiences as Muslim counselors, and the benefits and limitations of western counseling theories.
 - They would learn the essential ingredients of an effective Muslim counselors and how to incorporate them in their life and practice.

- For further details and making arrangements to have this Workshop delivered in your community, please send an e-mail to:
workshops@shifa.ca